

OPEN Health's patient centricity year book 2022

Click on the images below to learn more about our patient centric activities

OPEN Health (OH) starts another year of pro bono work with the patient organization – Timothy Syndrome Alliance – to support the development of an HCP educational tool

OH delivers a multi-stakeholder virtual panel discussion on “Effectively articulating burden for future health technology assessments”

OH provides facilitators and speakers at patient centricity congresses, such as the Patient Centricity & Engagement Conference in London

OH attends the European Congress on Rare Diseases & Orphan Products

OH attends the Global Genes Congress and NORD Breakthrough Summit

OH presents its poster titled “Patient and public involvement in research: Reflections on OH collaborations” at ISPOR Europe

